Ten thousand marchers—an estimate of newsmen—followed the stocky negro minister in the fulfillment of his long-held hope of a massive march on Montgomery to protest denial of negro voting rights.

"WE ARE STANDING together to make it clear that we are determined to make brotherhood a reality for all men. We are tired of waiting. We have waited 345 years for freedom and the day is at hand," he said.

King, who won the 1954 Nobel Peace Prize, was joined by another Nobel Prize winner, Ralph Bunche of the United Nations. Scores of political figures, movie stars, union leaders and clergymen marched.

THE UNUSUAL DEMONSTRATION was under heavy guard by federalized Alabama National troops called up by President Johnson.

Just before the start of the Selma-to-Montgomery march bombs were found at a Roman Catholic Church, a private home and a funeral home.

Homes and Churches in the Birmingham area where the bombs were discovered were evacuated. An army demolition squad was called in and deactivated the bombs.

Top Honor Roll students of the Region IV Foreign Language Division chosen at the Language Fair held at BYU Saturday were announced by Dr. Dixon C. Anderson, Language Dept.

THE TOP STUDENTS were: Freney, Gregory West from Skyline High; German, Mark Hertig from Granite High; Levin, Judy Lindgren from Skyline High; Russian, Verla Beckstead from Hillcrest High; and Spanish, Sandra Camarero from Granite High.

Spring? Is It Here? Wait—It Gets Worse

by Michele Bartmess
Universe Staff Writer

In Provo there is a trifle old saying, "If you don't like the weather—wait a minute."

I came in off the roof Tuesday afternoon, rubbed some lotion on my sunburn and sat down to write an article on the lovely weather. The calendar would soon announce that it was Spring, and certainly the weather was in agreement.

THAT EVENING I went to MIA secure in the knowledge that I had my article done. On the way my roommate casually remarked that she had forgotten to celebrate the Ides of March. That reminded me of a particular scene in Julius Caesar where the wind had been blowing.

I told her that I was glad that there had been nothing to remind me to celebrate. Little did I know what the next day would bring.

WHEN IT WAS time to retire for the night, I opened my window as usual. Wincoost! There I stood with the curtain in my mouth.

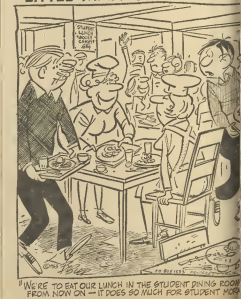

I reflected sadly on the article I had written. I knew that there would be no lawology classes tomorrow and I would not need my umbrellas.

WEDNESDAY MORNING I kept thinking of the old saying they have in Provo about the weather. I thought if I just waited it would change. I waited, and waited and waited. Finally at noon

UCLA Grabs 2nd Straight National Title

UCLA won its second straight NCAA basketball title Saturday defeating Michigan 91-80 on the strength of a 42-point effort by Gall Goodrich.

THE SATURDAY output set an all time four-game scoring mark in NCAA play of 400 points—beating the mark of 359 set by themselves last year by a considerable margin.

Another record scoring effort led Princeton to a 118-82 win over Wichita for consolation honors at Portland. The team output surpassed the record of 112 set only a week ago by Oklahoma City in Provo.

SENSATIONAL Bill Bradley netted 58 points in that encounter to pass the mark of 56 set by Oscar Robertson in 1958. His 175 points in five tournament games is also tournament record surpassing the old mark of 169 in New York. St. John's stood off a late rally by top-seeded Villanova and handed retiring coach Joe Lapchick an unprecedented fourth National Invitation Basketball championship with a 55-51 victory.

BYU 'A' Kickers Win Opening Game

BYU's Peter Lysenko sneaks past an Ogden defense man for a close shot at the goal. The ball ended the game for one of BYU's eight goals in the first division game.

by Warren Dustrup
Universe Sportswriter

The BYU soccer team had a very successful weekend as the "A" team defeated Ogden by a score of 8-2. The "B" team lost a tough one to the Aztecs 4-2 after leading at the half 2-1.

THE SCORING for the "A" team was spread out fairly evenly between the Cougars. Ogden even made one of the BYU goals. Dan Madsen got two big counters to equal the output of Bill Forest, Rudi Neumann, Helge Relstad, and John Kiese each made a goal.

The Mountain Cat team seemed to be more accurate than their Ogden foes.

The members of the BYU soccer team have been training all winter inside, and were in better condition.

THE SCHEDULE played by the Utah Division starts in the fall and is carried over to the spring. As a result the teams have already played seven games and the standings show the Cougars in third place. Hollandia is first place and Alemania is in second.

With the Ogden win the Cats now sport a 6-2 season record. Their next match is with front runner Hollandia. Coach Olavi Juukunen hopes to come out on top of this game. The two fall were by but one point.

IF THEY CAN get Hollandia they will be in contention for first place.
